In the matter of the application of William P. Ross for the enrollment of himself, his wife Maud W., and his children, Sadie B., Floyd McD. and Gunter Ross, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; he being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A William P. Ross.
- Q How old are you? A I will be forty-one years old the 30th day of December.
- Q What is your postoffice address? A Bartlesville is my post-office; heretofore it has been Coffeyville.
- Q Are you the husband of Maud W. Ross? A Yes sir.
- Q And the father of Sadie B., Floyd McD. and Gunter? A Yes sir.
- Q Are these children all living? A No sir.
- Q Which one is dead? A Floyd is dead; he died the 15th of last August.
- Q Is Sadie B. living? A Yes sir.
- Q Gunter? A Yes sir.
- Q Your wife is living? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were you born? A I was born at Fort Gibson in 1861.
- Q Where was your wife born? A In Fort Gibson.
- Q When were you married to her? A I think it was - our little girl is ten years old - about eleven years ago in October.
- Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A Fort Gibson.
- Q How long did you continue to live at Fort Gibson after your marriage? A I lived at Fort Gibson for I can't remember the exact dates; I was there during the Cherokee payment and built me a house out west of town; four or five years, I don't remember exactly.
- Q Where did you move to when you left Fort Gibson? A Moved to Coffeyville.
- Q About what time was it you went to Coffeyville, what year? A I think it was in '87, I think it was, or '88.
- Q Do you mean '87 or '87? A '97 or '98 I guess.
- Q About five or six years ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you actually move in the town of Coffeyville? A Yes sir, I actually moved in the town of Coffeyville. I went up there and bought a farm from Allen Gilbert.
- Q Did you buy that farm in the Cherokee Nation? A That was in the Cherokee Nation, five miles from Coffeyville, southwest.
- Q Did you build a home on that place? A I built me a house a year afterwards. $565.00 it cost me; I got the lumber from Bell Lumber Company, Coffeyville.
- Q Did you furnish that house? A Yes sir, I furnished that house.
- Q Did you ever live in it? A Yes sir, we lived in it.
- Q Did your wife live there with you? A Yes sir, she lived there with me.
- Q Do you own property in Coffeyville? A No sir, never owned a foot of land out of the territory.
- Q Did you rent a house up there? A Yes sir, from W. S. Sheppard. I cultivated my own farm about five miles from there; I had six hundred acres there.
- Q Did you keep house up there? A Yes sir.
- Q During this time you were in the vicinity of Coffeyville, Kansas, how long did your wife live with you out on the farm? A She had been out on the farm all the time until the first of November this year - since six years, her and the children for two years.
- Q Now you stated a while ago that in 1887 or '98 you moved into the town of Coffeyville? A Yes sir, I moved into the town.
- Q You kept house there? A Yes sir.
- Q For how long a time? A I guess it must have been a couple of years, until I was able to build the house I intended to move into.
- Q But in the mean time you always owned this farm? A Yes sir, I ✓ never have been without a farm in the Cherokee Nation, never have been without a farm.

Q Do you remember positively Mr. Ross, what year it was that you went to Coffeyville? A I think it was in '97, sir. I couldn't swear. I think it was by looking over rent receipts.

Q Did you live there continuously in the town of Coffeyville for two years from 1897? A Yes sir, I think we did; that is my family did and I lived there, but in the meantime there wasn't a week that I wasn't working on my farm and making improvements as soon as I could make them; I can produce affidavits to that effect.

Q From 1897 up until 1899 that would be the two years you were living in Coffeyville; did you ever keep house in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I never did because I had no house to go into, that was the reason. Had I had a house I would have, but I wasn't able to build a house.

Q Were you sending this child, Sadie, to school? A Yes sir, I was sending her to school.

✓ Q What was your object in living in Coffeyville? A Simply I hadn't no house in the territory; the little house I bought of Allen Gilbert I leased to the renter; I hadn't no team and I wasn't able to tend to it myself, leased it to Edward Gardner, I rented him the only house there was there and I had to wait until I could build and borrow the money. I had to borrow money to build that house any way.

Q How long after you completed that house before you moved to the farm? A At once; as quick as the carpenter got through I moved in- to it.

✓ Q That was about 1899? A Yes sir, I guess it was.

Q From 1899 up to the first of this last November did you live on the farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, and my family too.

Q Were you ever engaged in business in Coffeyville? A No sir, none at all.

✓ Q Did you ever vote there? A No sir.

Q Always voted in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, always in the territory; the rolls will show that.

Q Were there any elections held in the Cherokee Nation during '97 and '98 while you didn't live in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Did you come to the Cherokee Nation to vote at that time? A No sir, I thought there wasn't anything of importance, that the political status was such that there was no use, so I didn't think there was any thing worth voting in up to that time; you will find that I voted other times.

Q Did you vote on this last treaty? A Yes sir, I voted on this last treaty.

Q Your vote wasn't challenged? A No sir, it wasn't challenged. I voted for the treaty.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 2240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12222-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Nowata Advertiser", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Nowata, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Nowata Advertiser" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 715), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

As information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, L.T.D 1190.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Bixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of McFie vs. the United States (164. U.S., 667), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation in his lifetime recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under those circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21 "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true, it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of that Nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Harrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two other as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of this letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 8, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your decision also, adverse to these persons, is correct, and it is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case and a carbon copy hereof have been

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Wenerable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 4, 1907, I, T. D 1399.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Kirby says

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1878.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the tribes prior to November 1, 1878, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 31 of the Act of June 28, 1888 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question is the one seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of United States vs. Johnston (104 U.S., 497), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under these circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offense charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 22 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 22, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, L.T.D 1590.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Dixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question is the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Hefire vs. the United States (164 U.S., 487), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under these circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 21 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner—

The name of Leo M. White appears upon the Census roll of 1896 as an intermarried white. He presents satisfactory proof of marriage to his wife, Nancy J. Thornton, a Cherokee by blood; said marriage having been solemnized in the month of February, 1896, and the name of Nancy J. Thornton is found upon the authenticated roll of 1896; and also upon the Census roll of 1896 as Mammie J. White, per present name. He avers that he has two children, Mary and Ruth E., whose names do not appear upon the Census roll of 1896. Satisfactory proof of residence having been made, and they being fully identified according to page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, the said Nancy J. White and her two children, Mary and Ruth E., will be duly listed for enrollment upon their filing with this Commission satisfactory proof as to the birth of the said two children. The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried white, but the evidence shows that he was married too late under the provisions of the law of the Cherokee Nation to receive any benefits as an intermarried white; consequently, his application for enrollment will be rejected.

H. G. Reichenberger, being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings of the Commission and the testimony of the applicant and complete transcript of his deposition as set forth.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp, biting cold that seemed to penetrate my coat. I shivered as I walked towards the entrance of the building. The air was thick with the scent of old wood and the faint, distant smell of coffee.

2. The interior of the building was dimly lit, with light streaming in from large windows on the right side. The walls were made of dark, polished wood, and the floor was covered in a thick, patterned carpet. The atmosphere was quiet and somewhat somber.

3. As I walked further into the building, I noticed a few people sitting at tables in the background. They were mostly men, dressed in formal attire, and they appeared to be waiting. The tables were set with white cloths and simple glassware.

4. I approached the reception desk, which was staffed by a woman with short, dark hair. She looked up at me and smiled slightly. "Welcome," she said. "What can I do for you today?"

5. I explained that I was looking for a room for the night. She led me to a small, cozy room with a single bed and a desk. The room was clean and well-maintained, with a view of the city through the window.

6. After settling in, I sat at the desk and looked out the window. The city lights were beginning to glow, and the cold air was still present. I felt a sense of solitude and reflection.

7. The night passed quietly, with only the sound of the city outside and the ticking of the clock on the wall. I fell asleep, feeling a sense of peace and comfort.

8. In the morning, I woke up to the sound of birds chirping outside. The sun was shining through the window, and the cold had melted away. I felt refreshed and ready to start the day.

9. I went back to the reception desk and asked for a map of the city. The woman handed it to me and wished me a good day. I thanked her and left the building, feeling a sense of accomplishment.

10. The journey had been a simple one, but it had given me a chance to reflect on my life and the world around me. I was grateful for the experience.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Louisa Adams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Nowata, Indian Territory, October 19, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Louisa Adams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 29, 1902, and January 4, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Louisa Adams, a white woman identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, as an adopted white, neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage, August 17, 1873, to one William Adams, deceased; that the said William Adams, deceased, who is identified on the Delaware Register at No. 971 and the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 Cooweescoowee District at No. 5 as an adopted Delaware, was a member of the Delaware tribe of Indians, and acquired citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of his compliance with the provisions of the agreement made between the Cherokees and Delaware Indians April 8, 1867.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that said applicant acquired no right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of her said marriage to William Adams, who was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Cherokee blood.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Louisa Adams, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

You are therefore directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Friday, January 4, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed the record of proceedings in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Louisa Adams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 2, 1907, adverse to the applicant.

The record shows that on October 19, 1900 application was received by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Louisa Adams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on September 29, 1902, and January 4, 1907. The evidence shows that Louisa Adams, a white woman, identified on the Cherokee Authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as "an adopted white," neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage on August 17, 1873, to William Adams, deceased; that William Adams, deceased, who is identified on the Delaware register at No. 971 and the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as "an adopted Delaware" was a member of the Delaware tribe of Indians, incorporated into the Cherokee Nation, and acquired citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of his compliance with the provisions of the agreement made between the Cherokees and the Delawares on April 8, 1867.

In view of the facts as herein set out, it is considered that the applicant, Louisa Adams, acquired no right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of her marriage to William Adams, who was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., versus the United States, and by reason of the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat.L., 495), the Office concurs in the decision of Commissioner Bixby, denying the enrollment of Louisa Adams as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee Case No. 1, 302.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Wuskogee, Indian Territory,

Mrs. Mattie B. Phillips,
Turley, Indian Territory.

Madam:

On the 19th day of October, 1900, your husband, Frank Phillips, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

The Commission is authorized to make rolls of citizenship of the Cherokee Nation by the following provision of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 496):

"That in making rolls of citizenship of the several tribes, as required by law, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is authorized and directed to take the roll of Cherokee citizens of eighteen hundred and eighty (not including freedmen) as the only roll intended to be confirmed by this and preceding Acts of Congress, and to enroll all persons now living whose names are found on said roll, and all descendants born since the date of said roll to persons whose names are found thereon; and all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood, have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted; and they shall investigate the right of all other persons whose names are found on any other rolls and omit all such as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, enrolling only such as may have lawful right thereto, and their descendants born since such rolls were made, with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

The following provision of the same Act shows that said rolls are to contain the names of only those who are entitled to share in the lands of the Cherokee Nation:

"That when the roll of citizenship of any one of said nations or tribes is fully completed as provided by law, and the survey of the lands of said nation or tribe is also completed, the commission heretofore appointed under Acts of Congress, and known as the 'Dawes Commission,' shall proceed to allot the exclusive use and occupancy of the surface of all the lands of said nation or tribe susceptible of allotment among the citizens thereof, as shown by said roll, giving to each, so far as possible, his fair and equal share thereof, considering the nature and fertility of the soil, location, and value of same;"

The first citation of the law shows that in the matter of placing intermarried persons upon said rolls the Commission is therein restricted to "such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

The Cherokee law applicable in this case was passed by the Cherokee Nation Council and was approved December 16, 1895. It is as follows:

"That from and after the passage of this ACT, all non-citizens who may marry Cherokees by blood, Delawares or Shawnees by blood, Citizens of the Cherokee Nation, shall acquire by such marriage, no rights of property, lands or money, belonging in common to the Cherokee people or Cherokee Nation, and Chapter XII, Article XVI, Sections 659 to Sec. 669, inclusive pages 329 to 334 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation, is hereby amended (so) as to conform to the provisions of this Act, and to vest no other than political rights in persons not of Cherokee, Delaware or Shawnee blood who may marry Cherokees by blood, Delawares, or Shawnees by blood who are recognized citizens. And all laws or parts of laws conflicting herewith, are hereby repealed."

It appears from the testimony in this case that you are a white person; that in the year 1898 you were married to Frank Phillips, your said husband, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, but such marriage was subsequent to the enactment of the Cherokee marriage law of December 16, 1893, which law went into effect from and after the passage of the same.

In view of the law and testimony in this case the application for the enrollment of yourself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation has this day been refused by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

A copy of the record of the proceedings had in this application is inclosed herewith.

This decision with a copy of the proceedings had in the case, is this day transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The final decision of the Secretary of the Interior will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

Very respectfully,

THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Q Do you insist on applying for your wife as a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes sir.

Q Do you consider that she lost her blood right under the Cherokee laws by living in Texas? A. No sir.

Q Do you make application for her as a Cherokee by blood or a Cherokee by intermarriage? A. By blood.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and eight children, one of whom is his step-child. He is identified on the roll of 1880 and 1886 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He applies for his wife as a Cherokee by blood. He states that she was born in the Cherokee Nation but when a child was sent by her guardian to Texas. It is shown that she continued to live in Texas and married twice in that state, and there lived with and married both of her said husbands. The applicant's step-child, for whom application is made, was born in Texas. His wife's first husband came to the Cherokee Nation and spent one year on rented ground but the balance of his life was spent in Texas. It is also shown that his wife did not come back here to permanently reside until 1880 at which time she was 30 years of age. Under the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation, First Article Second Section, it is considered that applicants wife had forfeited her citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and she did not apply for re-admission to citizenship upon her return to the Cherokee Nation. She is identified on the roll of 1880, but she is not considered to be entitled to enrollment at this time according to the status under which application is made and her application for enrollment is therefore rejected. The child Willa Eliza Myers, a child of applicants present wife by a former husband, is identified on the roll of 1880 but she was born in the state of Texas and possesses no rights not possessed by her mother, therefore the application for the enrollment of the child Willa Eliza Myers is rejected. Of the remaining children, the first two are children of applicant by his blood wife who is identified with him on the roll of 1880 as an adopted Native. These are children of Calvin E. Coker, Frank E. Coker, Calvin E. Coker and Joseph O. Coker are all living and are identified on the roll of 1880. They are Native and will be listed for enrollment at this time as Cherokee by blood. The three remaining children are children of the present marriage. While the applicants wife fails to claim that she is Cherokee by blood, it is shown that she did apply to come here to live at the time of her first husband, that she has lived with him in the Cherokee Nation ever since she married him. These are therefore legitimate children by this marriage. The first two Native and Samuel O. Coker are identified on the roll of 1880 and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee by blood. The youngest child Virginia E. Coker will also be listed for enrollment when the application is supplied with a proper certificate as to its birth.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, ~~said applicants~~ are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Cherokee No. 4649

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 22nd, 1902.

Jane Dougherty,

Catoosa, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled "An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, I.T.D 1390.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Dixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1896 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Hefire vs. the United States (164 U.S., 687), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under those circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be ~~be~~ entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the Nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Com'r Needles:--The name of Jasper Ward appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896, and he makes application for the enrollment of his wife, Dora and his child John G. S. The evidence shows that he was married to his wife, Dora Francis, in the year 1896, so late for her to receive any benefits or rights as a Cherokee citizen under the laws of the Cherokee Nation, consequently the application for the enrollment of his wife will be rejected. He avers that he has one child, named John G. S., and its name appears upon the census roll of 1896. He being duly identified the said applicant and his child will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

J. O. Rossen, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Cherokee No. 4660

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 22nd , 1902.

Charles W. Moore,

Hudson, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled
"An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Oklahoma, I.T., October 22, 1900.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John Langley as a Cherokee by blood;

Elijah Mayfield, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is the boy's father's name? A Noah Langley.
Q What was his mother's name? A Fannie.
Q Was his mother an Indian by blood? A I think his mother was, I know his father is, but I am not right certain about his mother.
(On 1880 roll, page 31, No. 629, Noah Langley, Canadian district.)
Q Did anybody draw his strip money for him? A I can't tell you; after his father ran away they brought him and gave him to me to raise him.

Q Where is his mother? A His mother is dead.

Q Where has this child been all the time? A He was with his mother until she died about a year or two years ago, and she died, and then his uncles gave him to me to raise.

Q Who was his uncle? A Charley Langley and Dick Langley and Ben Moore; Ben Moore was the brother of his mother and the others were brothers to his father.

Mr. J. L. Baugh, representative of the Cherokee Nation:

Q Where was this child born at? A Here somewhere, I can't tell you exactly where; he was born right around here.

Q Where was his father and mother living at when they were married?
A I can't tell you whether it was in Canadian or not, they lived there a long time; he killed a couple of men and had to run away.

Q Did he take his wife with him? A No, sir.
Q Did she follow him? A No, sir, she stayed here; his father might have come back to this enrollment, I don't know.

Q Do you know whether his mother was a white woman or an Indian?
A I can't tell you, but I think she is Indian; there is people here that knows her.

Q Do you know what his mother's name was before he married her?
A No, sir, I don't recollect.

The name of John Langley is found upon the pay roll of 1894. It is averred that he is the son of Noah Langley, a Cherokee citizen by blood, and the name of Noah Langley is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Satisfactory proof is made as to the residence of the said John Langley, and that he is a descendant of the said Noah Langley, whose name appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Consequently the name of John Langley will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood, with the understanding that any subsequent developments as to his citizenship that are arrived at by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be taken into consideration for his final enrollment.

Bruce O. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

John R. Allison presents a certificate of admission to citizenship, more particularly described in the testimony, and his name is found upon the census roll of 1896. He presents satisfactory certificate of marriage, certifying that he was married to one Sallie Pollan, an intermarried white, in the year 1894, and her name as Sally Allison is found upon the census roll of 1896. He also presents a certificate of admission, more particularly described in the testimony, admitting his three children, Willie, Elma R., and Jimmy, to Cherokee citizenship, on the 3rd of October, 1887. Since his marriage he avers that he has had born to him John, Mary E., Una, Sabra and Edgar H. Allison, all of whose names appear upon the census roll of 1896, with the exception of Edgar H., and he presents satisfactory proof of birth as to said child. They all being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, said John R. Allison and his said children as enumerated in the testimony will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood and his wife Sallie as a Cherokee by intermarriage.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The name of Jesse B. Burgess appears upon the census roll of 1880. It also appears upon the pay-roll of 1894. Satisfactory proof has been made as to his Cherokee citizenship, consequently he will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He presents a certificate of marriage, certifying that he was married to his wife, Elizabeth B., a white woman, in the year 1889, and satisfactory proof as to her residence is made, and her name is found upon the census roll of 1890, and consequently she will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

He applies for the enrollment of Nellie B. Burgess, a child of whom he avers he is the father, but testifies that he wasn't married to its mother, and its mother was a white woman, and the child was born out of wedlock, and consequently the application for the enrollment of Nellie B. Burgess will be refused.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 21st day of October, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

COMMISSIONER

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

(COPY)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the Office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, I.T.D. 1390.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Rixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question is the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Hofire vs. the United States (164 U.S., 657), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

.....
The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under those circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be ~~is~~ entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner

WASHINGTON.

February 20, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your deci-

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John H. McCarty as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on October 22, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of John H. McCarty as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 9, 1902, and January 4, 1907, and January 7, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, John H. McCarty, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law September 16, 1872, to his wife, Francis McCarty, deceased, nee Phillips, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Going Snake District, as "Francis McCarter", No. 1074, as a native Cherokee. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Francis McCarty, which occurred on April 11, 1894, the said John H. McCarty and Francis McCarty resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation; that after the death of said Francis McCarty the said John H. McCarty remained unmarried and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as "John McCarter" and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as John McCarty as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, John H. McCarty, is entitled, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, I. T., March 1, 1902.

In the matter of the application of William H. Alexander, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation:

The Commission: The Cherokee Nation makes satisfactory proof of service on Florence Dilly, the mother of the applicant, that testimony would be introduced tending to disprove the right of her child William H. Alexander, by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation, to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, at the offices of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 1st day of March, 1902.

Said Florence Dilly has been called three times on this day, to-wit: the 1st day of March, 1902, and fails to respond.

ELMER H. ALEXANDER, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name ? A Elmer H. Alexander.
Q Your age ? A 33.
Q Post office ? A Grove.
Q Do you know Florence Dilly ? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known her ? A About 6 or 7 years.
Q Were you ever married to her ? A Yes sir.
Q When ? A The last day of December, 1895.
Q How long did you live with her at that time ?
A Why I stayed there about three months, and she went back to Seneca where she had a house up there.
Q Seneca, Missouri ? A Yes sir.
Q You and her have been separated since ? A Yes sir.
Q She married another man ? A She claimed to be married to Dilly.
Q Was she ever married before you married her ?
A She claimed to have been married to a fellow named Keller. That is what she told me.
Q I will ask you to state whether or not this man Keller was dead, and if you ever learned anything about it subsequent to your marriage to her ? A She told me afterwards that he was dead not dead and not to come up to Seneca any more.
Q That he wasn't dead ? A She told me before marriage that he was dead, and afterwards, after she went back to Seneca, she wrote me that he wasn't dead, and for me not to come up any more.
Q Why ? Get into trouble with the courts ?
A That's the way she talked. I went up there several times to see her, and then she wrote that he wasn't dead.
Q Do you know whether he was separated from her ? A He wasn't there when I was there.
Q You don't know whether she procured a divorce ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see this man Keller ? A No sir.
Q When did she tell you that he was not dead ?
A It was something like three or four months, I think, after we were married.
Q Were you living with her at that time ?
A You might say we never did live together. We stayed down there a while at her sisters; then she got up and went on off.
Q I want to ask you whether or not she told you that she wrote me not to come up there that Keller was not dead.
Q You don't know of your own knowledge that he was living ?
A No sir.
Q What was she doing up there to make a living ? A I don't know. She wrote and told me not to come up there that Keller was alive.

Q You lived with her two or three months after you were married ?
 A Yes sir. We stayed there two or three months.
 Q I will ask you to explain a little more about her writing to you about this man Keller being alive. Was it an urgent letter ?
 A It seemed to be.
 Q I will ask you if she didn't write you a four page letter with references to this matter, and all of it on this same subject ?
 A Yes sir.

1. The first step in the process of creating a new product is to identify a market need. This involves conducting market research to determine what consumers want and what problems they are facing. Once a need is identified, the next step is to develop a concept for a product that addresses that need. This is often done through brainstorming sessions with a team of designers and engineers. The concept is then refined through prototyping and testing. Finally, the product is manufactured and distributed to the market. The entire process is iterative, with feedback from consumers and the market being used to improve the product over time.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896. He states that he married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law in 1891, but he is unable to produce at this time official evidence of his having married under a Cherokee license. Neither he nor his wife were ever married before. Of the four children named in the testimony, the first three are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, and when the certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Ethel Day, is supplied the Commission, this child will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Commissioner-

The name of Sarah J. Smith appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Sarah Suaky, and she presents certificate of marriage certifying that she married John Smith, a non citizen, according to Cherokee law in 1897. Her name also appears upon the Census roll of 1886 as Sarah J. Smith. The name of her husband John Smith, does not appear upon the Census roll of 1896. She makes satisfactory proof as to the birth of her child, Laura K., one year old, whose name does not appear upon the Census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled. She being duly identified as a Cherokee citizen by blood, and having made satisfactory proof as to her residence, the said Sarah J. Smith and her daughter, Laura K., will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood. She having married her husband, a white person, in the year 1897, too late for intermarried whites to receive any benefits or rights to Cherokee citizenship under the law of the Cherokee Nation, the application for the enrollment of her husband, John G. Smith, will be refused, and he will be rejected.

E. G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, I.T., FEBRUARY 4th, 1900.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen of JOHN THOMAS.

Said John Thomas being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give your name? A John Thomas.
- Q How old are you? A I do not know just my age, about 60 I reckon.
- Q Are you the same John Thomas who applied at Claremore in October?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q What is your post office? A I was at Claremore when I made that application; I had been at Oolagah.
- Q In what district did you live back in October? A In Cooweescoowee.
- Q You claim to have been married to Mary Jones, a Cherokee woman, in 1876 do you? A Yes, sir.
- Q You testified in your original application that you had never remarried since your wife, Mary Jones, died? A Yes, sir.
- Q There has been some testimony given before the Commission since that time showing that you have lived with a woman since her death as a husband? A I never did, never did claim any woman as my wife but that woman.
- Q It is not so much what you claim as the way you live; you are not allowed to construe your own acts altogether. What woman have you lived with since the death of your wife, Mary? A I reckon the woman they talked about; I testified that I was never married; her name was; I suppose the one they are talking about --
- Q I am talking about whom you lived with; Who have you lived with?
- A I haven't been living with anybody as a wife.
- Q Who have you lived with at all; haven't you lived with a woman and had children by a woman since the death of your Cherokee wife?
- A I don't know whether I have or not.
- Q You understand exactly what I mean, I have asked you what woman you have lived with and you have not answered? A Her name is different now, I guess it was Mary Nunn.
- Q Now you have kept company with one or more women since the death of your wife, haven't you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Tell me who the women are? A Who I have kept company with?
- Q Yes, sir. A I have lived with Mary Nunn.
- Q How long did you live with Mary Nunn? A Off and on, seven or eight years somewhere along there.
- Q How many children did this woman have during that time? A She had several, four or five. She had some before that, I don't know how many she did have altogether.
- Q You held that woman out in your community as your wife? A No, sir, never did.
- Q Did she ever go by your name? A No, sir.
- Q Did she claim you as her husband? A No, sir, never did.

INTERROGATORIES BY JOEL L. BAUGH, Cherokee Representative:

- Q Was she with you at the time you kept a restaurant at Tulsa? A Yes, sir, she staid there and cooked.
- Q After you left there and went to Red Fork, didn't she go with you? A I went to Red Fork and she come afterwards.

Supl.--John Thomas--2.

Q She staid there with you at Red Fork? A She had a place there.
Q You went there and staid there with her? A No, sir, I staid at my place of business.
Q How many children did she have by you? A I don't know.
Q How many did she claim that she had by you; the Commission wants a direct answer from you, we want you to tell the straight thing about it? A She had some before.
Q I am not talking about how many she had before? A She never did tell me that any of them was mine.
Q Don't you know that the people there at Tulsa and Red Fork knew that you and she were living together as man and wife? A No, sir.
Q How would such a man as Terry Parkinson? A He never knew.
Q You and she corresponded for several years? A I had her at Tulsa to help me.
Q How many children did she have during the time you and she lived together that seven or eight years? A She had four or five.

BY COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Have you reason to believe that this woman was unfaithful to you during the time she was living with you? A I could not say anything about that, I was backwards and forwards.
Q Did you hear that she was living in improper relations during that time? A I never heard that she was and never heard that she was not, I was gone a good deal, maybe a year at a time without seeing her and what she done I don't know.
Q Maybe a year at a time? A Yes, sir, I was away at different time.
Q How when were you absent from her a whole year from the time you and she began to live together, where were you and what were you doing? A I was sometimes in the Cherokee Nation and sometimes in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe country.
Q You said you were way from her as much as a year at a time; tell me when you were away from her as much as a year at a time and where you were and what you were doing? A I was out in the Arapahoe country.
Q She was not with you there at all? A No, sir, I was gone about a year in the Sac and Fox Agency and I went from there to the Cheyenne and Arapahoe country.
Q Something near one year? A Yes, sir.
Q Did she have a child while you were gone? A No, she didn't.
Q How long after you came back was it until she had a child? A I was not with her after that.
Q You never lived with her after that? A I came back from there to the Cherokee Nation.
Q Then that is not a part of the six or seven years you lived with her? A That is part of the Q Now you have not given me a straight statement at all; you stated to me that during the time that you were living with this woman you were away from her as much as a year? A Yes, sir.
Q Now when I have called on you to name the year you have named a year which you say took place after you were living with the woman and you have never lived with her since? A No, after I come back I never lived with her.
Q Therefore you have not answered my question at all; now I repeat the question, you stated to me that while you were living with her, not after you had left her, you were away as much as a year, what year were you away, where were you and what were you doing? What year did you go away from the time you were living with this woman? A In Cheyenne and Arapahoe country.
Q That was not during the time you were living with her? A That would not be seven or eight years.

Supl.-John Thomas--3.

Q Again you name no time of one year when you were living with her when you went away; if you can name it and if you cannot name it I want to know it.

The witness is unable to name any such time.

A I was not away long at a time.

Q How long a time then? A Four or five months.

Q When were you absent from her as much as four or five months during the time when you were living with her? A I was at Fort Smith about three or four months.

Q Now you have dropped from four or five months down to three or four months; now when were you at Fort Smith three or four months?

A I could not tell you what year it was.

Q What were you doing down there? A I was down there charged with introducing liquor.

Q You were down there in prison were you? A Yes, sir, I was down there to trial.

Tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of a John Thomas found thereon as follows:

1880 Authenticated roll; page 189, #2966, John Thomas, Coowees-coowee, district.

Q That John Thomas is enrolled with his wife, Jane, who is shown to be dead and with a child named Oscar and child named Ada; did you have a child named Oscar by your first wife? A No, sir.

Q Child named Ada? A No, sir.

Com'r:--This is shown in the case of Addie B. Rowland, #5620, to be another John Thomas who was the father of Addie B. Rowland and it is evident therefore that the present applicant is not identified on the roll of 1880.

Q Is there anything further that you want to say about your case?

A No, nothing more than that.

Q You are not identified on the roll of 1880, your first enrollment was a mistake? A I was enrolled by Dick Duck.

Com'r Breckinridge: It appearing that the original identification of the applicant was erroneous as indicated for 1880 in his testimony taken at Claremore October 22d, 1900, and as shown in said testimony he was not identified upon the roll of 1896, his case calls for reconsideration. The present testimony which is referred to for careful examination shows that the applicant appears to have protracted a common law marriage by his practice and continuous life with one Mary Funn. (Q Was Mary Funn a white woman? A Yes, sir, I suppose she was.) This Commission would only have jurisdiction over the application from the testimony now adduced by reason of the marriage certificate and license showing that the applicant was married in accordance with Cherokee law to a Cherokee woman in 1876, but from the evidence indicating a second common law marriage, regardless of his construction of his conduct and from his not being admitted upon any roll of the Cherokee Nation, a reconsideration is necessary and it is not seen that the applicant is entitled to enrollment. His first wife, an alleged Cherokee citizen as stated in the applicant's original testimony, died in about one year after their marriage and consequently she is not on the roll of 1880. This testimony will be filed with the applicant's case, #4705, and a note will be made on his card.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I. T., November 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Thomas, Cherokee Card No. 4705, it appears from the evidence taken this day in the case of Benjamin F. Row and et al that the name of the said Benjamin's wife's father appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, Chickasaw district, No. 2966, together with his wife, Jane, the mother of the applicant's wife. It further appears that on the Sunday of October, one John Thomas, who gives his postoffice address as Claremore, I. T., appeared before the Commission and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage. He was placed upon a regular Cherokee Card No. 4705 and given an 1880 enrollment, which was evidently incorrect, as the enrollment which he was given properly belongs to the enrollment of the father of the said Benjamin F. Rowland's wife. Rowland testifies in his application that his wife's father died somewhere along in 1890 or 1891. It appears from the testimony given by John Thomas that he made application for enrollment, and that his name could not be identified upon the Census roll of 1896.

E. G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported and transcribed the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes of the same.

COMMISSION
JUL 10 1993

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., December 1, 1902.

In the matter of the application of John Thomas for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee Nation by its representative makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant, John Thomas, that it would at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the first day of December, 1902, introduce testimony tending to disprove his right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant has this day been called and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

O. H. Hayworth, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:
By W. W. Hastings: What is your name? A O. H. Hayworth.

Q Where do you live? A At Tulsa.

Q How long have you lived there? A I have lived in that country since '84.

Q Do you know John Thomas? A Yes sir.

Q He is an applicant as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q When did you first learn to know him? A The first time I met him was in the fall of '84.

Q Where did you meet him? A At Red Fork.

Q Was he living out there? A Yes sir.

Q What were you doing out there? A I was working in a store, that was only just temporary, just to fill a place.

Q Was it your understanding that he was living there then? A Yes, I supposed he was; he was there all the time; I know he was living there.

Q Did he have any children? A I don't hardly know how to answer that question; I thought he had.

Q Were there children around there recognized as his children, said to be his children? A Yes, always referred to as Thomas' kids. I have seen them around with him.

Q Did you get acquainted with any woman, or see any woman that was told to be his wife? A Yes.

Q Now tell the Commission how you know it and any details about it? A Well, in clerking in a store like I was, anyone that would come in - me being a new man, and for me to get acquainted with him I would ask another clerk who was that after they stepped out; that was how I had Mrs. Thomas pointed out to me. I said is that Thomas' wife I was talking to a while ago and they said "yes". I said she must be a Cherokee; he told me he was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by marriage; that was how I knew it. He had been telling me what he had, and afterwards I found out she was a white woman and was rejected from the Creek Nation at one time; two or three years after that I knew of his circumstances there, he living at Tulsa.

Q Thomas had been previously married? A That was what I heard since then, and what he told me himself that he married a Cherokee woman and she died.

Q She died? A Yes sir.

Q That was before you knew him as living with this woman? A Yes, I have heard that since I was here and from him; that he married I think in '78 or '77, and that his wife did not live very long after he married her.

Q Shortly afterwards? A Yes, probably a year or so. He had no children by her.

2-John Thomas-

Q He had no children by his first wife? A No sir.
Q Did he tell you so? A Yes sir.
Q She only lived a short time? A Yes.
Q There were some children out there that were recognized as his children? A Yes sir.
Q You don't know whether he married this second woman or not? A No, anymore I never heard he did marry her or not.
Q You never heard any expression of it at all? A Only from him. He said he never had married but one woman.
Q Was this woman, in general talk, was she recognized as living with him as husband and wife? A That was my impression.
Q Was it your understanding that these children were her children by him? A I never heard anyone say anything about that. I heard some one say since this case come up that that boy, some young man around there asked me if I remembered him; they said he was twenty-one years old, and it was John Thomas' son, and he stays there part of the time with him at Tulsa; I don't know anything about that, I never got around his place.
Q You never were in his house? A No sir, never was in his place where he lived, his dwelling house.
Q You know he lives out there? A Yes sir, he lives at Tulsa now.
Q Was it your information that this woman lives with him now? A Oh, no, she doesn't live with him now.
Q When did they separate? A I don't know, I haven't seen anything of this woman for years.
Q You don't know that she is not living with him? A No sir, I don't, but I haven't seen her.
Q Have you any information of it one way or the other up to the present time? A I don't think she is; I am certain he was laying up with some other woman, with Mrs. Abbot.
Q He is now? A Within the last two or three years.
Q What is she a white woman or Cherokee, this last one? A I don't know but I don't think she was an Indian, but I never heard her referred to as Mrs. Thomas; I heard her as Mrs. Abbot.
Q The first woman was referred to as Mrs. Thomas? A Yes sir, nothing but Mrs. Thomas.
Q She went by that name? A Yes sir.
Commissioner: She was a white woman, his second wife? A That was my information, she was a white woman.
Q Do you know how long they continued to live there at Tulsa? A I don't think they ever lived there.
Q I should have said Red Fork? A I think they probably did live at Tulsa, and went to Red Fork and that was where I met him first.
Q How long did they live at Red Fork? A I can't remember, probably a year or two and may be two or three years.
Q Did they keep house there? A I think so, I couldn't say positively.
Q Do you know what has become of that woman now? A No sir, I don't know what has become of her, but I have been told ---, but one of those children still stays with John part of the time, supposed to be his boy; if he is he is not a son of his Cherokee woman.
Q Is Thomas living in Tulsa now? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been living there? A He has been living in Tulsa about there twelve or fifteen years I guess.
W.F. Hastings: I will ask you if you know whether this man was allowed to vote after his alleged marriage to this second wife; was his vote ever challenged, do you know? A Yes, I saw his vote challenged once.

2-John Thomas-

Q In a Cherokee election? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know why it was challenged? A On the ground I am talking now.

Q That he had carried out and forfeited his right? A Yes sir.

W.V. Hastings: I will ask for a continuance until December 11, so that additional witnesses for whom subpoenas were issued may appear in the case.

Commission: Continuance will be granted and attorney for the Cherokee Nation will be required to issue notice in the case.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John Thomas as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on October 22, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of John Thomas as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Chelsea, Indian Territory, November 20, 1900, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 4 and January 24, 1901, October 15 and December 1, 1902, at Vinita, Indian Territory, January 7 and 12, 1903, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 16, 1905, and January 5, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, John Thomas, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, is a white man, and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to one Mary Thomas, nee Jones; that said marriage did not occur until March 28, 1876. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry in accordance with Cherokee law, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1876.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, John Thomas, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this FEB 2 1907

Cherokee 4706

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 3, 1902.

John Thomas,

Tulsa, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of November 26, enclosing physician's certificate as to your inability to appear personally before the Commission, together with five affidavits and two permits issued to you to employ labor.

The physician's certificate and permits have been filed, but the affidavits are herewith returned to you, for the reason that the Commission does not accept affidavits as evidence in applications for enrollment.

If you have further testimony to present in your case, you will be required to have the witnesses appear in person before the Commission at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, for examination under oath.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

John Thomas,

Tulsa, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of January 4, in reference to your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and in which you state that you were married prior to November 1, 1878, you are advised that the United States Supreme Court in its decision of November 8, 1906, held that white persons who intermarried according to Cherokee law, with Cherokee citizens, prior to November 1, 1878, are entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

If you claim to be entitled to enrollment under the Court's decision you will be permitted to appear before the Commissioner at Washkago, Indian Territory, at any time within the near future, and submit such testimony as you desire, relative to your marriage to your Cherokee wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and as to the date of your marriage.

The Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides that the secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, after March 4, 1907, and the matter of your enrollment should, therefore, receive your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

February 26, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 2, 1907, transmitting the record relative to the application for enrollment of John Thomas as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. On February 2, 1907, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to enrollment.

The evidence shows that the applicant, John Thomas, who is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated tribal roll of 1880, is a white man, and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to one Mary Thomas, nee Jones; that the marriage did not occur until March 28, 1876. The applicant did not therefore marry in accordance with Cherokee law a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, prior to November 1, 1875.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. The United States, the applicant is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

It is therefore recommended that the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant be approved.

Very respectfully,

C.F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 7, 1902

Mr. Lewis C. Luton,

Claremore, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of affidavits of your wife, Ida Luton, and J. C. Bushyhead, M.D., in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your infant child, Alice R. Luton; the application is also accompanied by an affidavit signed by yourself, stating that your name as it appears in the affidavit of your wife, Louis L. Luton, is given incorrectly, and that your correct name is Lewis C. Luton. The records of the Commission show that you are listed for enrollment as Lewis L. Luton.

The affidavits in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your child Alice R. Luton are herewith returned to you. As it is the custom of the Commission to list new borns upon affidavits of the mother and attending physician or midwife, an affidavit of yourself, purporting to correct an error in the affidavit of your wife, will not suffice. You are desired to have your wife execute new affidavit, giving your name correctly therein, and forward same to the Commission. Upon receipt of same, the application for the enrollment of your child, Alice R. Luton, will receive prompt consideration.

Yours truly,

Q That was before you married Marsh? A Oh long before.

Q Is Cordery dead? A Yes, he is dead.

Q Do you know that he died at all? A Yes, sir, I know that.

Q How long have you known it? A I have known it for a year or two; I heard it, I don't know it.

Q Did you and Cordery live together as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q And he was living up to the last two or three years? A I don't know how long he has been dead.

Q When did you first hear of his death? A That has been a couple of years ago.

Q Did you hear that he had just died, or how? A I didn't hear; they said he was dead.

Q Did you ever get a divorce from him? A No, I never was married.

Q You were married according to the Cherokee law? A Yes.

Q You held each other out as husband and wife? A Yes, I reckon we did what time we stayed together.

Q Didn't you keep house together? A Yes.

Q Did he cultivate land? A No, he never cultivated any land.

Q How did he make a living? A We didn't live together very long.

Q What business did he follow when you did live together? A He worked a little, and I don't know what he did do, it has been so long ago.

Q You and he kept house together? A Yes, sir.

Q Was that the first man you ever lived with? A Yes, sir, that is the first one.

Q And then did you live with anybody else as a wife up to the time you married Marsh? A No, sir.

Q What was Cordery's full name? A Seaborn.

J. G. Schrimsher, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A J. G. Schrimsher.

Q How old are you? A About 65 I guess.

Q What is your post office? A Claremore.

Q You have been Judge here in the Cherokee Nation, haven't you?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since I was about 12 months old.

Q Do you know this applicant here, Catherine Duncan? A I used to see her at school, at the seminary, when I was a young man.

Q How long ago has that been? A That was in 1851 or 1852 I guess.

Q Was she recognized then as a girl born here in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew her to be a native Cherokee, did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know her mother? A No, sir, I didn't; they didn't allow white children to go to the school at that time.

Q None were admitted at the school except those recognized as Cherokees by blood? A I think not; there might have been one or two, but that was the general rule.

Q This is the same woman? A I think it is; I always understood she married a man named Duncan.

Q And she lived with a man named Cordery, did she, in her early life? A Well, I don't know whether they lived together or not; when she was going to school she ran off with a man named Cordery and was gone sometime; I don't think she was ever married.

Q Didn't they live together as husband and wife? A Well, they went off together, I suppose they did.

Q Doesn't that constitute marriage under the Cherokee law, when they live together and keep house and hold one another out as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and husband. She is not identified upon the roll of 1880, but upon reliable personal testimony she is shown to have been in the Cherokee Nation all her life and her omission from the roll of 1880 doubtless arises from oversight or carelessness. She is identified on the roll of 1896, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Her husband is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1888. She states that she has lived with him ever since their marriage. He is a white man. He is identified on the roll of 1896. It appears, however, that the applicant at one time lived with a man named Cordery, and that they held each other out to the world as husband and wife, that no divorce was ever obtained from that husband, though she obtained a divorce from a later husband. It further appears that Cordery, if he is dead at all, has died only within the last few years, certainly much later than the date when the applicant was married to her present husband. Therefore, the application for the enrollment of her husband will be taken under advisement and for the present will be placed upon a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his post office address.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of CHRISTOPHER C. LOWTHER as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Claremore, Indian Territory, October 22, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Christopher C. Lowther as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 10, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Christopher C. Lowther, a white man, is alleged to have married in accordance with Cherokee law one Josephine Lowther, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District No. 1747 as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 11363. Said marriage is alleged to have taken place in 1874 or 1875. It is further shown that from the time of said alleged marriage the said Christopher C. Lowther and Josephine Lowther resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902.

December 27, 1906 and again on February 13, 1907 notices were sent to the applicant herein to appear immediately and give testimony tending to establish his marriage in accordance with Cherokee law to a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. This, the said applicant has failed to do. Said applicant, Christopher C. Lowther, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Christopher C. Lowther is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

On February 28, 1907, the Commissioner recommended to the Department that the case of Louisa Mayfield, an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman be passed upon at the same time the case of her alleged father, Thomas Mayfield, through whom she claims her right to enrollment, was passed upon. The application for the enrollment of said Thomas Mayfield was included in the consolidated Cherokee freedmen case of Thomas Mayfield et al., in which case the Commissioner decided adverse to the applicants on February 12, 1907, his decision being forwarded to the Department on that date, and the same was approved by the Department on March 2, 1907 (I. T. D. 5980-1907). This office has not been advised of any action taken by the Department in the case of said Louisa Mayfield.

On February 28, 1907, the Commissioner transmitted ~~a motion to reopen and reconsider the Cherokee enrollment~~ case of Polly Johnson et al., and recommended that the same be denied. February 11, 1902 (I. T. D. 940-1902), the Department rejected the application of Polly Johnson et al., in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress of May 31, 1900 (31 Stats., 221). This office has not been advised of any action taken by the Department on said motion.

Hon. Secretary of the Interior - 4.

It is respectfully requested that this office be advised, in order that its records may be complete, of the action taken by the Department on the above cases.

Sir:

The Office has received your letter of May 26, 1907, in which you say that the records in the possession of your office fail to show that any decisions have been rendered or action taken by the Department in cases enumerated by you, in which decisions had been rendered adverse to the applicants by you and forwarded to the Department on certain dates set out in your letter.

The Departmental letters covering all the matters mentioned by you are enclosed.

On March 4, 1907, the Office transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior papers transmitted by you relative to the enrollment of Louisa Hayfield as a Cherokee freedman, suggesting that her case be disposed of in connection with the case of Thomas Hayfield, et al., which was then pending in the Department, but apparently the only action taken by the Department is indicated by its letter of March 4, 1907, returning the papers concerning Louisa Mayfield to be filed with the papers in the Thomas Mayfield case. In other words, no final action was taken on the case of Louisa Mayfield.

It is hoped that the enclosures accompanying this letter will enable you to straighten up the records of your office concerning the cases about which you inquire.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Webbers Falls, Indian Territory,
February 23, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of MARSHALL MANN as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

J. L. McCORKLE, being first duly sworn by H. L. Sanders, a
Notary Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name?
A J. L. McCorkle.
Q What is your age?
A I was born in 1837.
Q Mr. McCorkle, are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A Not so regarded.
Q Were you at one time a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A So regarded.
Q Did you ever hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was Clerk of the District Court, Canadian District from 1869 to 1874.
Q While acting in that capacity did you issue a marriage license to Marshall Mann, a white man, to marry Miss Pauline McCoy, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q When was that license issued?
A On the 32nd day of March, 1873.
Q When were they married?
A On the 24th day of March, 1873.
Q Mr. McCorkle, how do you fix the date of their marriage?
A From some old papers in my possession. Then when Marshall Mann left this country he owed me $75.00; that makes me remember all about him.
Q What is the nature of these papers? Are they parts of records that you kept while clerk of the District Court?
A They are parts of the records not turned over to my successor.
They were among some old scraps in a trunk that I had, and which I came across in making a search for information.
Q Now Mr. McCorkle, you can swear positively that this paper which you hand me is a part of a leaf taken from a record of the marriage license issued by you while acting as Clerk of the District Court of Canadian District?
A Yes sir. I had received a letter from Mrs. Mann and made a search for the license, and upon finding it made a note on this paper.
I have not now got the original, I don't know where it is.
Q After their marriage was Marshall Mann recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.

- Q Did they reside together as husband and wife as long as you knew them?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Mr. McCorkle, will you let the Commissioner have this memorandum now in your possession?
- A Yes sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The witness here presents a copy taken from the record of marriage licenses issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Canadian District, showing a license to have been issued to Marshall Mann on the 22nd day of March, 1873, and solemnized on the 24th day of March, 1873, and recorded on the 27th day of March, 1873.

- Q Were you present at the marriage of Marshall Mann and Pauline Mann?
- A I don't think I was.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with Marshall Mann?
- A Well, a good many years ago.
- Q Was it prior to November 1, 1875?
- A Oh yes.
- Q Well Mr. Hanks, while you were not present at the marriage, you are willing to swear it was prior to November 1, 1875, are you?

- A Yes.
- Q Is he a white man?

- Q Were either of them ever married before their marriage in 1873?
- A I never heard they was.
- Q From the date of their marriage until the death of Marshall Mann did they continuously reside together as husband and wife and live in the Cherokee Nation?

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Claremore, Indian Territory, October 22, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Marshall Mann as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 4, 1907 and February 23, 1907 and at Webbers Falls, Indian Territory, February 23, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Marshall Mann, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law March 24, 1873 to his wife, Pauline Mann, nee McCoy, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Delaware District No. 1669 as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 11360. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said Marshall Mann and Pauline Mann resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived within the domain of the Five Civilized Tribes up to and including September 1, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Marshall Mann is entitled to enrollment, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Q Was he ever married except to you? A No, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of her husband and five children and herself. She is shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1889, and to have come to the Cherokee Nation within twelve months from her admission as required by the certificate of the latter. She has lived here ever since, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her husband, who was previously married to her under United States law, is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1894. He has lived with her in the Cherokee Nation ever since, and is identified on the roll of 1896. He will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. The five children named in the testimony are all identified on the roll of 1896, they are all minors, and are living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the Office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 22 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 4, 1907, I.Y.N. 1296.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Bixby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1878.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1878, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Hefire vs. the United States (164 U.S., 487), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

.....
The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under those circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be ~~is~~ entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner

WASHINGTON.

February 20, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1890 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your deci-
